CANADIAN CONTENT PRODUCTION RULES (CCPR)

I - GENERAL CONDITIONS

A. Scope

1. These Rules may be used for underscoring music for:
   - Motion Picture film (Theatrical);
   - Made for TV Movies and/or Home Video Rentals/Sales;
   - Episodic TV (documentaries, dramas and sit-coms which have a scripted story line for each episode);
   - Themes and format music for episodic TV.

2. To be eligible a Film must satisfy the Canadian Content criteria as specified in the Eligibility Application form, or, alternately, be certified as Canadian content pursuant to the CAVCO.

B. Exceptions

These rules may not be used to record music for a musical or variety-type show(s) for television which would normally be produced under a network agreement, such as the Television Videotape Agreement or CFM - CBC General Production Agreement. A musical or variety-type programme is described as, “where an instrumental performance or musical accompaniment to a featured performer is an essential element for a significant portion of the programme”.

C. Distribution/Use of Recorded Product

The recorded music track shall be used exclusively to accompany (is synchronized to) the picture for which the music was originally scored, with the following exceptions:
   - clips of any film (containing music tracks), which may be used for any trailers (including theatrical or television advertising) for the same film, and
   - to produce a soundtrack recording, without payment of additional fees, to musicians who rendered services in recording the original music tracks.

D. Considering the generality of these conditions, each film, show or series, is subject to singular and specific approval by the Canadian Federation of Musicians. A producer is not to infer/imply signatory status for purposes of negotiating fees/conditions with any CFM/AFM members, until such time as the Producer has attained a copy of a fully executed Letter of Adherence confirming CFM’s approval to utilise these Canadian Content Production Rules.

F. Pension

For all services performed under this Agreement the Producer shall contribute twelve percent (12%) over and above all minimum fees as outlined in this Agreement to the Musicians' Pension Fund of Canada.
III  GENERAL TERMS

(1)  Temporary Membership Permits
It is intended that only the services of members in good standing of Locals of the American Federation of Musicians of the United States and Canada be used for the performance of any services within a classification covered by this Agreement. Should the services of non-member musician(s) be utilized for session recording work, the Producer shall be responsible for obtaining a permit number from the Local in whose jurisdiction the services were rendered, or from the CFM office. The applicable fee shall be deducted from the musician's fee, and remitted to the CFM/AFM Local in whose jurisdiction the services were rendered. For Basic Recording, Sideline and Recording/Sideline Sessions, the applicable fee shall be: $100.00 per non-member musician, per day of recording.

(2)  Extra percentages applicable to leader/contractor/doubling etc., to be in addition to all session fees.

(3)  All services to be contracted under AFM forms as provided by the AFM and/or its Locals. Contracts for musicians’ original services are to be filed with the Local in whose jurisdiction the services were rendered.

(4)  The B7 report form must specify the name of film and/or episodic series and identify each episode within a series along with the anticipated broadcast season.

(5)  Theme or Format music shall not be utilized for underscore.

(6)  For minimum scoring requirements in an episodic series, the terms of the AFM MP/TV Film Agreement apply.

(7)  TV variety shows in the form of specials, weekly series, daily strips, etc. are not eligible for production herein. Please refer to the CFM - CBC General Production Agreement or AFM Television Videotape Agreement for productions of this type.

(8)  Any and all use of existing recorded material (excerpts/clip use), is handled and cleared through the CFM office.

(9)  Productions are subject to a contract filing/handling fee. The amount payable (by the producer) is calculated @ 11% of the total scale fee payable to one side musician. This additional amount is to be included, with the payments and/or contracts required herein to the Local in whose jurisdiction the services are rendered.

(10)  The CFM logo must be included in the credits of all productions along with the credit line: “Produced with the cooperation of the Canadian Federation of Musicians”.

For additional information, contact the CFM Office: (416) 391-5161, ext 232 or 224
